Course Overview:

"This course has been designed by the Department of English at Shivneri Mahavidyalaya, Shirur Anantpal, with the aim of uncovering the hidden talents of undergraduate students from rural areas. It is designed to facilitate students in learning to communicate with ease in their day-to-day lives. The course provides a comprehensive understanding of phonetics, grammar (with a focus on tenses, modals, determiners, and subject-verb agreement), and communication skills. Through a combination of theoretical knowledge and practical application, students will develop strong language skills essential for effective communication in both academic and social settings."

Course Objectives:

- To introduce students to the basic principles of phonetics and help them improve their pronunciation and speech clarity.
- To enhance students' grasp of fundamental grammar elements, including tenses, modals, determiners, and subject-verb agreement.
- To develop students' communication skills, covering verbal and non-verbal aspects, to enable effective interpersonal and formal interactions.

Course Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

Phonetics:

- Demonstrate improved pronunciation and clear articulation of sounds.
- Recognize and correctly use the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA).
- Apply phonetic knowledge to reduce pronunciation errors in speech.

Grammar:

- Demonstrate proficiency in correctly using tenses, modals, and determiners in various contexts.
- Maintain subject-verb agreement in both written and spoken communication.

Communication Skills:

- Develop effective verbal communication skills, including clarity, coherence, and fluency.
- Utilize non-verbal communication techniques such as body language and tone of voice to convey messages accurately.
- Improve active listening skills to enhance comprehension and responses in conversations.
- Adapt communication styles for different situations, including academic and social settings.
- Employ effective presentation skills for public speaking and presentations.
