

❖ Library Objectives

- To set an environment for more productive teaching-learning process.
- To maintain user oriented policies and programs.
- Using library and information technology innovatively and appropriately.
- To provide and deliver information services to the user community.