

Activity 3

A One-Day Workshop on Personality Development

07/04/2022

Introduction

Any activity by the department of English is an integral part of the department of English since the establishment of Shivneri Mahavidyalaya in 2000. The department was established in view of motivating students to participate in departmental activities concerned with the students learning the English language as their special subject. This activity is conducted by the department of English along with the cooperation of students in our college, where a guest had been invited to deliver a lecture on the Development of Personality in every walk of life in a healthy and a creative environment in the college.

Vision

To stimulate rational thinking and a strong personality development in the English Language.

Mission

To make the students be comfortable with rational thinking and a strong personality development in the English

Aim

A strong personality development aims at providing a cooperative environment and a platform, where students get connected with the language, personality and feel the importance and its gravity resulting into impending immense confidence within and sparking covert and overt behaviour.

Objectives

- To make students use English accurate and fluent.
- To instill, uphold and enhance the personality development skills.
- To develop skills required to facilitate the advancement of personality strength as a whole.

Body of the Workshop

3. Mr Shinde P. R. -- Convener
4. Mr Kure K.V. -- Co-convener
